

Note: This map has been removed from the Upper Thames River Assessment Report. The London-Fanshawe wells were decommissioned in the summer of 2020. The City of London is now supplied entirely by the Lake Huron Primary Water Supply System and the Elgin Area Primary Water Supply System